

2

July 29 through August 4, 2024
John J. Cali School of Music
Montclair State University

2024 makes the 20th Anniversary of the launching of Gramercy Brass Band Camp!

We invite you to be with us for the celebration!
Spend a week with principal members of Gramercy Brass Orchestra.

This document will provide preliminary information on plans for GBBC this coming summer. More details will be available soon.

REGISTRATION FOR GBBC IS NOW OPEN ON OUR WEBSITE

GBBC is open to all brass and percussion students from early school band experience, through advanced high school ages.
College internship opportunities are also available.

Players of Trumpet, Cornet, Flugel Horn, French Horn, Eb Tenor Horn, Baritone, Euphonium, Trombone (tenor and bass), Tuba and Percussion are all welcome.

Note to Percussion:

GBBC percussion parts call for reading on traditional Band/Orchestral instruments. There is limited opportunity on drum set.

GBBC presently operates as a “day camp” from 10am - 4pm daily. We may consider offering overnight MSU dorm accommodations if there is enough interest.

Here are some highlights in the planning for 2024

Guest Conductor - Russell Gray/ Renown Brass Band and Orchestra Conductor from the UK - <https://russellgray.co.uk>

Three youth brass band levels may be offered depending on enrollment:

- Junior Brass Band / early start up - grades 6 through 8.
- Senior Brass Band / grades 9 through 12
- Premier Brass Band / by Audition (variable grade levels)
(please reach us via email for updated information at info@gramercybrass.org)

Percussion students will participate with brass bands, as well as in percussion ensemble settings as schedules permit each day.

For Adult Brass and Percussion Players:

GBBC will offer a 20th Anniversary Festival Weekend with guest artists, bands and ensembles.

Saturday and Sunday, August 3 and August 4, 2024

Details will be released soon.

For Questions: GBBC@gramercybrass.org

Advanced information will be coming to our website soon!